AFG Fabrication Makes Organizational Changes

Atlanta, Georgia – AFG Glass has announced several management changes within the company's Fabrication division.

Sam Bray, Operations Manager for the AFG's Reidsville, NC Fabrication plant has announced his retirement effective March 31, 2007.

Replacing Bray as the Operations Manager in Reidsville will be Greg Frazier. Frazier previously served as Operations Manager at the company's Albuquerque, NM Fabrication Plant as well as Fabrication Regional Sales Manager for the Western Region.

AFG has announced the promotion of Tony Torres to Operations Manager at the Albuquerque, NM facility. Torres has been with AFG eight years in various roles including AFG Fabrication Outside Sales Representative.
