INDUSTRIAL GLASS CUTTING STALWART BARBERET JOINS BOHLE AMERICA

Charlotte, NC. 26th January 2009: Dana Barberet has joined Bohle America Inc. as Director of Sales for Industrial Cutting. Dana, who spent 18 years at Fletcher-Terry to become Director of Sales for cutting wheel technology, will join Bohle to develop the company's Silberschnitt brand of products and grow its market share within North America.

"Bohle has significantly extended its range of solutions for industrial glass cutting and increased production capacity in Germany," said Bohle America, Inc., CEO Gary Dean. "Dana's wealth of experience of the North American market provides us with an ideal marriage of superb product quality and market expertise to bring this product line to North American customers."

Bohle recently introduced several new products for glass cutting including the Cutmaster Gold and the Cutmaster Platinum wheels which offer exceptional accuracy and significantly extended lifespan. These additions supplement a wide range of clip-type cutting wheels, tungsten carbide wheels, and stainless steel holders and axles stocked in the company's Charlotte, NC., distribution facility for immediate delivery nationwide.
