

NFRC Adds Two to PCP Team

New team members to support consumers and certification program participants

GREENBELT, Md. (October 24, 2008) – The National Fenestration Rating Council (NFRC) announced today that it has added two new staff members to support the Product Certification Program and the Certification Agency Program.

Toni Stroud comes on board as PCP Associate. Toni manages the day-to-day issues involved with PCP while developing, strengthening, and maintaining relationships with both the manufacturers and consumers. Toni brings considerable experience in membership services, recruiting, consulting, and meeting planning.

Sherri Wendt is the Certification Associate. She is accountable for the Certification Agency Program and will be the staff liaison to the Certification Policy Committee as well as the Ratings Committee task groups and subcommittees. Sherri comes to NFRC from NFRC-accredited lab Architectural Testing, Inc., in St. Paul, Minn. She brings five years of fenestration industry experience to the job and is a certified simulator.

"I'm pleased to welcome Sherri and Toni to the NFRC team and am impressed with the level of drive and ambition they've already shown," said NFRC Executive Director Jim Benney. "We believe their combined experience and enthusiasm will be a major asset to NFRC as we move into 2009."
