BENDHEIM ANNOUNCES NEW SALES ACCOUNT MANAGER

PASSAIC, NJ/April 30, 2008 — S.A. Bendheim, North America's leading importer and fabricator of specialty architectural glass, has appointed Sue Adams as a sales account manager. Adams will be responsible for sales of Bendheim's specialty glass products and Bendheim Wall Systems channel glass. She will also manage customer service relations with a number of New York City architects and designers.

Before joining Bendheim, Adams served for two years as Vice President of DIRTT sales at Lane Office Furniture, New York, NY. Prior to DIRTT, she was responsible for new account development and sales at Acme Architectural Walls in New York for ten years. Adams also coordinated contract furniture projects as Project Director for Logistics, Inc. and supervised field, CAD and support staff as Project Manager for Contract Furnishings & Systems, both in New York City.

Adams holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in marketing and communications from the University of Connecticut.

Founded in 1927, S.A. Bendheim Co., Inc. is one of the world's foremost sources of specialty glass products. The third-generation, family-owned company develops, imports, processes, and ships its products worldwide. The glass is processed in-house, utilizing state-of-the-art machinery and sound environmental practices. Bendheim's products span five divisions including Architectural Glass, Channel Glass, Restoration Glass[®], Stained Glass, and Cabinet Glass. Bendheim Wall Systems, Inc. is North America's leading provider of channel glass wall systems and the exclusive distributor of Lamberts channel glass. Bendheim maintains more than 2,000 varieties of specialty decorative glass in its New Jersey and California facilities. Design professionals are invited to visit the company's extensive showroom in Tribeca, New York City.
